BANGKOK OVERVIEW

“กรุงเทพมหานคร อมรรัตนโกสินทร์ มหินทรายุธยา มหาดิลกภพ
นพรัตนราชธานีบุรีรมย์ อุดมราชนิเวศน์มหาสถาน
อมรพิมานอวตารสถิต สักกะทัตติยะวิษณุกรรมประสิทธิ์”

“City of Angels, Great City of Immortals, Magnificent City of the Nine
Gems, Seat of the King, City of Royal Palaces, Home of the Gods
Incarnate, Erected by Visvakarman at Indra’s Behest”

Throughout the history of more than 800 years, the Kingdom of Thailand has relocated its capital 4 times. The cities of Sukhothai, Ayutthaya, Thon Buri and Bangkok had all been the centre of the Kingdom in different periods, respectively.

Bangkok was the name of a small town located on the east side of the Chao Phraya River when King Rama I founded the Royal House of Chakri. Because of its better strategic geographic location, Bangkok was chosen to be the new capital in place of Thon Buri. King Rama I had the Bangkok city pillar erected on 21 April 1782, and crowned himself on 13 June, 1782. The full ceremonial name of Bangkok given by King Rama I was later edited by King Rama IV by changing a part of the name from “Bowon Rattanakosin” to “Amon Rattanakosin” [from “Great City of Glory” to “Great City of Immortals (or Angels)”. The name of Bangkok, therefore, is “Krung Thep Mahanakhon Amon Rattanakosin Mahinthara Yuthaya Mahadilok Phop Noppharat Ratchathani Burirom Udomratchaniwet Mahasathan Amon Piman Awatan Sathit Sakkathattiya Witsanukam Prasit”.

Bangkok

Sleepless City of Shopping

Bangkok is the most populous city in Thailand. The main river that is like the major life vein of the country is the Chao Phraya River. Moreover this is known as the city with the longest name in the world.

Today, it is the centre of administration, education, transportation, finance, banking, commerce, communication, etc. The total area is 1,562.2 square kilometres.

Administration

Bangkok is characterized as a special administrative zone (the other one of the two zones is Pattaya), according to the Administration of Bangkok Province Act B.E. 2528 (1985) that determined Bangkok as a political bureau, taking the role of a metropolitan administration and has a governor and deputy governors from election. They are responsible for the administration for a 4 year term each time from the election day.

There is also the nomination of the Permanent Secretary to join the administration. Operations include the Bangkok Metropolitan Council that has been elected to directly work with them.

Tourism attractions and recreational places

Bangkok is a charming tourist attraction. It is a destination for tourists from around the world. Most frequented places include the Grand Palace, Wat Phra Si Rattana Satsadaram or Wat Phra Kaeo, the Ananta Samakhom Throne Hall, and Bai Yok Tower 2 (No. 44 of the highest skyscrapers in the world).

There are also places for visitors to enjoy shopping for various types of products at reasonable prices; such as, Suan Chatuchak Market, MBK Centre, CentralWorld, Siam Square, Siam Paragon, and Yaowarat. There are a lot of dining areas with relaxing environment ; such as, Phra Athit Pier, Khao San Road, etc. Besides there are museums, and Bangkok Planetarium, Bangkok Kid Museums as well. But if you like to take some rest in a park, Bangkok has many green zones to serve both for leisure and exercise, and to associate; such as, Suan Luang Rama IX Park, Benchasiri Park, Lumpini Park, Chatuchak Park and Rot Fai Park.

During the birthday celebration of H.M.King Bhumibol Adulyadej, Ratchadamnoen Avenue and Democracy Monument area will be decorated with light to celebrate in a fascinating Way. In addition, due to being the centre of the progress of economy, politics, trading, investment, and administration of the country, this affects Bangkok to ranked 5th among cities with the most skyscrapers in the world.

Transportation

Bangkok originally used water as the main transportation channel because there were so many canals that the city was named "Venice of the East", but now some canals have been filled to become residences, so transportation is now focused on land instead. Transportation in Bangkok is various in both land and on water; such as, taking a bus, taxi, boat, etc.

Road

- » Bangkok is the starting point of the main thorough fares of the country as follows:
- » Phahonyothin Road (Highway No. 1, northern route)
- » Sukhumvit Road (Highway No. 3, eastern route)
- » Phetchakasem Road (Highway No. 4, southern route)

Rail

There are 3 starting train stations:

- » Bangkok Railway Station (Hua Lam Phong) for going to the North, Northeast, Central Region, East, some provinces in the Upper South, and Lower South.
- » Thon Buri Railway Station for going to the Upper South and West.
- » Wongwian Yai Railway Station for going from the estuary of the Gulf of Thailand onto those of the Tha Chin River and Mae Klong River.

Sky Train and Subway

In 1999, the BTS Sky Train Project (BTS - Bangkok Transit System) was activated; that is a dual-track rail way system that was built on a viaduct. The subway began serving in 2004 under the MRT: Mass Rapid Transit Project name (MRT: Mass Rapid Transit).

Current public electrified trains in service are as follows:

- » BTS sky train
- » Sukhumvit line (light green)
- » Silom line (dark green)
- » Subway
  - Chaloem Ratchamongkhon line (blue)

Bus

Bus or air-conditioned buses are for travelling to the provinces in Thailand from the following main stations:

- » Bangkok Bus Terminal (Mo Chit Station) (usually called Mo Chit Mai or Mo Chit 2) for travelling to the North, North East and Central Region (including some routes of the East, South, West).
- » Bangkok Bus Terminal (Ekamai Station) for travelling to the East.
- » Bangkok Bus Terminal (Borommaratchonni Road) for travelling to the South and West.

Air

Air travel in the past used Don Mueang Airport (Bangkok International Airport), which was in operation since 1914. However, now Suvarnabhumi International Airport (in Samut Prakan province) has been used since 28 September 2006.

Now Don Mueang Airport is used as a domestic airport and Suvarnabhumi international Airport is for international flights and some domestic flights.

Water

- » There are passenger boats plying the Chao Phraya River and canals as follows:
  - » Khlong Saen Saep passenger boat
  - » Chao Phraya Express boat
  - » Regular Express boat
  - » Express boat with orange flags
  - » Special Express with yellow flag
  - » Special Express with blue flag
  - » Special Express with green - yellow flag
  - » Khlong Bangkok Noi Quick long tail boat
  - » Sathon - Khlong Toei Express boat

VICTORY MONUMENT

อนุสาวรีย์ชัยสมรภูมิ

The Starting Point to the North
Transportation Centre of Bangkok
Monument of Victory
That You Have Been

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

Victory Monument-mention this name, and you will be told it is a place for traffic jams and crowds. There are several dozen numbers of buses, the sky train, vans, taxis, personal cars along with over 60 thousand visitors who come to make an appointment or transfer to another bus to go to their destination or come to do commercial business.

The Monument, however, was erected for future generations like ourselves to commemorate the bravery of the consecrated military men who protected Thailand in the considerable cases of the Thai - French conflict (Indochina War), World War II and Korean War. The monument is the starting point of Phahonyothin Road - the way to lead us to see fascinating scenery of the North - one of the golden locations in Bangkok that usually has got several travellers and visitors who come to shop for clothes, bags, shoes, accessories, etc. And now you know that, how could you miss to shop in this area.

Getting There

การเดินทาง

Formerly known as "Sanam Pao Intersection", the Victory Monument is located at Kilometre marker No. 0.0, Phahonyothin Road; as a centric traffic circle between Phahonyothin Road, Ratchawithi Road and Phayathai Road.

The transportation to arrive here is comfortable because almost all buses in Bangkok pass here or you can also take the BTS, van or taxi. You should be familiar with the direction if you would like to take your own car because parking here is-usually occupied by regular comers.

THA PHRA CHAN

ท่าพระจันทร์

Community of Faith
Sacred Objects of Worship
Riverside Eating
Songs and music at Nong
Movies at Fame

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

In the early Rattanakosin era, this used to be the place where the “Phra Chan Fortress” was situated; the western city cannon fortress). Although the fortress was razed from the area to be replaced by Sanam Luang (Royal Ground), the road that was cuts to this area was still been called “Phra Chan Road” and this the pier has still been called “Phra Chan Pier” until now.

The Phra Chan Pier is one of the charming areas of Bangkok. Just close one's eyes and then try to imagine the ancient architecture and large trees on both sides of the road. “Mahathat Lane” houses Buddhist amulet stalls and coffee shops for Buddhist amulet lovers to discuss their favours. There are delicious food restaurants on the riverside that offer a relaxed atmosphere (it's emphasized that food here is very tasty). Or if you are a movie or song lover, you shouldn't miss to visit “Nong Tha Phra Chan shop and Fame Tha Phra Chan shop”, these 2 shops gave birth is many song composers and movie directors. Especially when the sun goes down, the civic ground beside Thammasat University will become the shopping place of teenagers, students and shoppers. There are cute bags and old-style hand-made necklaces, clothes and accessories.

The blend of different periods and various flavours gathered in one area is the charm of Phra Chan Pier that is very unique from others.

Getting There

VAN

As you can travel to Sanam Luang it seems that you can come to Phra Chan Pier too. Anyway it's better to suggest travelling here by taking a “passenger boat” to experience the atmosphere of the Chao Phraya River. Views on the banks with a cool breeze can put right to your travelling well.

For foreign travellers, if you want to experience the atmosphere of a city motor tricycle or Tuk Tuk you can also take one to look around.

BUS

Capital-Link Bridge
Night Shopping Paradise
Second-hand Jeans
Tasty Fried Cuttlefish Eggs

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

The saying "Chatuchak is the day paradise and Saphan Phut is the night star", is not overstated especially to real shoppers in that none of them shouldn't miss to shop in these areas.

When dusk comes around 7 p.m.-midnight, the area under King Rama I Memorial Bridge, erected to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Bangkok, here is awoken by shops, stalls and many people who come to this area with the same objective that is "shopping". No one can be patient or hesitate to shop and take a look at clothes, bags, shoes, art, or the handmade accessories here; moreover, you can eat (tasty) fried cuttlefish eggs in a relaxing environment. How good it is! Especially if you favour tattoo, just come here and you'll know that "You were truly born to be here".

Well...in Thai name it is Saphan Phut (Saphan = bridge, Phut = homophone of Wednesday); even though it is Saphan Phut, the market is off on Monday.

King Rama VII had the royal initiative to erect the bridge as a memorial in the celebration of the 150th anniversary of Bangkok's establishment in 1929 (it is 79 years old). The King first gave its name as "Pathom Borommarachanuson Bridge" but people have usually called it "Phuttha Yotfa Bridge" until now.

Saphan Phut's shopping place is near the foot of the Pathom Borommarachanuson Bridge (Saphan Phut) on the Bangkok side, Tri Phet Road, Khwaeng Phra Borom Maha Ratchawang, Khet Phra Nakhon, Bangkok, 10200

Tasty Stuffed Bread

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

Old trading area beside Bang Lamphu Canal where in the present finding a school uniform and delicious food to eat is easier than finding Lamphu (Cork Tree, the place that fireflies live). This is the main street of Phra Nakhon District, the architecture of the 2 road sides' shops to recall the atmosphere of the old city in the past reigns; that is one of its charms. Frequenters for this district or many parents in Bangkok must know that to buy many school uniforms, learning equipment, bags, shoes, socks and other craft equipment, they do not need to go far just come to Bang Lamphu. And you can find them all in one area.

One thing that cannot be missed, stuffed bread of "Phonchai", the tasty legend that many people go to queue up longer than a concert ticket reservation, including dried shredded pork, raisins, sausage, butter and mixed stuff to buy until you're full.

PRATU NAM

ประตูน้ำ

This area includes various computer equipment, IT software, shirts, shoes, bags, accessories, etc. that are easy to sell-purchase at a reasonable price as a real shoppers' paradise.

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

The place of a large ready-to-wear trading centre in Bangkok that is popular among retailers, shoppers, and foreign tourists who love to buy cheap price fashioned products. Every square inch of space of Pratu Nam Market is well organized and demarcated for convenience to the buyer and distributor while they are doing trade. Besides, there are also 3 big malls at the intersection including Platinum Fashion Mall (big air-conditioned ready-to-wear retail - wholesale centre) Pratunam centre (fashion and shopping centre) Pantip Plaza (Bangkok's popular retail - wholesale computer equipment and software centre) as well.

การเดินทาง

Getting There

From these reasons, Pratu Nam's area has become limited (because most areas have been transformed to be stores) so we don't recommend you to take your own car to visit this area because an empty space in the parking lot is not easy to find and it's quite expensive to park here (if you would take your own, it's recommended to park at the Baiyoke Building). The best way is taking a Tuk Tuk or taxi or bus or BTS sky train (for sky train, you should get off at Ratchathewi Station and take a Tuk Tuk) or if you would like to take a small passenger boat at Khlong Saen Saep to dock at Pratu Nam pier is easy as well.

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

If we mention Silom, Surawong and Mahesak, many people would think of one of the major commercial areas in Bangkok. Since this is the location of central headquarters of banks and several immense companies of the countries, for most tourists, these 3 streets that link together are known as the “Road of Jewellery”.

It is known that the works of the Thai craftsmen are ones that are delicate and won't be beaten by other countries in the world. The ornament and cutting is the other thing that foreigners appreciate in our skill. The price is not expensive because they are made by skilled craftsmen in the country, so the jewellery trading business can make much profit. What you will see along both sides of the streets are many leading accessories and jewellery shops with selective masterpieces to show in their display room. If you are a precious jewellery lover like diamonds, and seek the sources of production from skillful craftsmen and good custom made products, then you won't be disappointed with the Road of Jewellery.

VAN

Silom Road, Surawong Road and Mahesak Road are well known for traffic jams, especially during rush hours and weekdays. Since it is a centre of the financial area and combined with crowded people walking here, therefore, to visit these areas taking the public transportation is the best way to go. However, if you wish to take your own car (for the safety of transporting jewellery), many stores often provide guest parking lots to accommodate and facilitate them but you should telephone to make an appointment first.

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

Since King Chulalongkorn or King Rama V the Great commanded to found Yaowarat Road to make commercial support in 1891, “Yaowarat” has become the financial centre, banking, important retail - wholesale commercial quarter of the country. Now Yaowarat is not only recognized as the street of business trading and for food sources, but is also known as the “Gold Street” because both sides of the street are lined with over 100 shops of skilled gold; that someone mentioned that gold ornaments from Yaowarat are very unique. Some say pure gold is 99.99% gold, but in fact 99.99% gold is too soft and improper to make gold ornaments. Then Yaowarat’s goldsmiths took pure gold mixed with other metals; such as, brass or silver until they got the stable formula at 96.5% with enough durability in its mass to keep the colour and shine of pure gold as it should be. In addition, the charm of Yaowarat gold is the handmade production that has been inherited for hundreds of years and is hard to find that makes Yaowarat’s gold become popular among buyers. You can be sure that this is refined, good quality and shining pure gold. For you, “Won’t you find a chance to buy some of Yaowarat’s gold?”.

การเดินทาง Getting There

BUS TAXI
BTS VAN

This Street of Gold is about 1 km. long starting from the Odeon Roundabout, along Charoen Krung Road bound toward the northwest to cross Song Sawat Road (Chaloem Buri Intersection), Ratchawong Road (Ratchawong Intersection) and Chakkrawat Road (Wat Tuek Intersection), then cross Khlong Rop Krung (Phanuphan Bridge), and ends at the crossroads of Phiraphong, Maha Chai and Chak Phet Roads. The transportation to Yaowarat can be made by taking a motor tricycle, taxi or private car (there’s a parking lot service in Yaowarat at a friendly price).

Or if you want to save time, we recommend to take the underground train and leave at Hua Lam Phong Station and then catch a car for a little bit further, and you’ll reach “Gold Road”.

SAMPHENG MARKET

ตลาดสำเพ็ง

Old Market in Old Cupitral
If You Like to Bargain, Don't Hesitate
It Is Worthy to Shop in Sampheng

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

Sampheng as we known it today is the mainspring of the economic road called "Wanit 1 Road", which is located nearby have Yaowarat. Before it became Sampheng like now, once when the kingdom of Rattanaledin was established, of the Sampheng community settled in the area that would become new capitalcity on the eastern side. King Rourma I mandated these Chinese to emigrate from here to the khlong Sampheng area, so the Chinese ancestors settled down and established a community and commercial area until it became a rich trading area. Besides Sampheng is the first commercial area of Chinese in Bangkok.

Now Sampheng is the largest centre of giftshops, clothing decorations, accessories, ribbon, button and fabric type products in Bangkok. The commerce is very active because there are a lot of people coming to buy things here. Even it is crowded, the people are enjoying bargaining and having a look at goods. If you reach yaowaphanit Road, the products are different and include leathers; much as, belts, bags, and shoe These kinds of store are often in the form of a "mini-phlaza" that building owners will share a small space to vendors to sell their products. The buyer doesn't need to waste time to find several products from various sources because most stores are selling the same product category which is combined at the same place.

การเดินทาง

BUS

TAXI

Sampheng Market is located near to the Chao Phraya River and also close to Yaowarat Road, so it is very convenient for transportation here because there are passenger boats, tuk tuk, taxis and you can take your own private car to come here as well. We recommend if you would like to take your own car, you should come early in the morning because a parking lot is rare to find (especially if it is a festival, it is hard or to find than usual) even if there are car deposit services. Therefore, you should park at Yaowarat or nearby places and then go by walking.

Area Info.

ข้อมูลทั่วไป

It is reputed very long among those who love woodwork and interior that if you want to have good woodwork and nice carvings, and want to order furniture at a reasonable price, you have to go to wood road (Soi Pracha Naruemit) at the Bang Phu area that won't make you disappointed. Soi Pracha Naruemit, in the past the local people worked in agriculture. But with the growth changing of social conditions, trading contacts with foreign people and Chinese merchants in wood furniture and crafts, combined with nearing to the Chao Phraya River that has been a log path downstream from the North to Bangkok, which makes it easy to find material, so there became gathering of many wooden furniture shops, carpenters and skillful carvers. Most of the products from the wood street are furniture, such as, wooden table, chair, cabinet, bed, shelves, turned banisters, and eaves fretted in beautiful patterns, especially for woodcarving work which is the unique work from this area.

So let us recommend the Gemopolis Outlet, the biggest jewellery trading centre in Asia that will make you happy with the experience of buying and selecting pleasurable ornaments that you never have in the world.

All About Gemopolis

ทำความรู้จัก
กับ Gemopolis

If we mention the name of "Anyathani Industrial Estate or Gemopolis", we believe that it doesn't sound familiar to you. So let us briefly introduce its history. Back in 1987, the Anyathani Industrial Estate or Gemopolis established a diamond cutting factory on an area of more than 900 rai for exporting and has been doing this business continuously. Until now the Anyathani Industrial Estate has become the largest jewellery Industrial Estate in the world with more than 120 jewellery manufacturing factories. There are around 18,000 Thai skilled craftsmen and total exports of more than 40 billion baht per year. In order to expand the channel of distribution of good quality jewellery, and cut diamonds from the Anyathani Industrial Estate or Gemopolis Outlet to Thai customer jewellery outlets were built to display in front of the shop to meet and distribute its products to those who want to buy products of quality jewellery and ornaments at fair prices.

All About GEMOPOLIS

ทำความรู้จัก
กับ Gemopolis

Gemopolis can guarantee the value and the satisfaction to all customers who purchase diamonds and ornaments and all employees are pleased to serve you. They add full knowledge in buying diamonds; there are suggestions of seeing how the light falls to reflect on a diamond, colour, clarity and transparency, and checking the weight of the diamond as well. So this can ensure customers that visit and buy them regularly.

Example of Hearts and Cupids

Another highlight of a cut diamond by craftsmen from Gemopolis is the Bangkok Cut by the skilled artisan of Thailand that has been famous and recognized around the world; this is diamond edge-cutting to be a symmetrically superfine and shinu diamond. This is the Hearts and Cupids style facet, which means if we look through a light reflecting microscope on the upside of the diamond a circle of 8 hearted shapes will be seen and take a look at below there will be a circle of 8 arrows, when viewing closely. This is the cutting of a high polish by spending time a production and weight loss of a diamond.

Four Spots

Not to Miss in Bangkok...

A dream travel destination, the capital Bangkok abounds with old traditions, tourist attractions, educational centres, historical sites, and shops selling inexpensive quality goods. To make your stay in Bangkok the most pleasurable, we'd like to recommend some of the musts of the city.

1. Temple Tour

Home to an array of centuries-old temples, Bangkok attracts Buddhists and non-Buddhists from all over the world. Wat Phra Kaeo (Temple of the Emerald Buddha), Wat Pho, (Temple of the Reclining Buddha) and Wat Arun (Temple of the Dawn) are just a few on top of the list, all of which are revered for their architectural beauty and long-standing history.

2. Thai Cuisine

Thai cuisine is another experience many visitors kill to try. With fine preparation and fresh cooking ingredients, Thai dishes will leave you wanting for more. The popular dishes are for example Tom Yam Kung, Phat Thai, Som Tam, Chicken Curry, and Chicken in Coconut Milk Soup. This Shopping@Bangkok you're reading also offers a long list of stellar restaurants.

3. Tuk Tuk

"Tuk Tuk" or a three wheeler is a non-air-conditioned taxi. This means of transportation is perfect for a short commute. The fare is roughly about 30 Baht (1 USD) for the first three kilometres, but the price is negotiable for longer rides.

4. Bangkok's Nightlife

Visitors can feel the hustle and bustle of the city well during the day, but Bangkok is even more vibrant at night. In Bangkok, sunset doesn't take away with it the liveliness of the city. Rather, the neon lights allure tourists to come out and enjoy the night entertainment. Shop till you drop at Suan Lum Night Bazaar, or indulge yourself in a stretch of nightclubs on Phat Phong, Silom, Sukhumvit, and Ratchadaphisek Roads.
